

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Dear Linda:

Thank you for taking the time to share your ideas with me. I was so pleased to receive your letter.

We are at a critical moment in our Nation's history and the future of our country rests on creative and impassioned Americans like you. That is why it is imperative that you continue to participate in our great democracy and find ways to help create a better tomorrow. It is only through civil engagement that America can continue to advance and thrive, and I appreciate your insight and innovative thinking. I urge you to address the needs of your community by volunteering your time and your ideas as we continue to confront the challenges facing our Nation.

To find more information about this Administration's policies on a wide variety of issues please visit www.whitehouse.gov. Thank you again for sharing your ideas and offering thoughtful suggestions. I wish you all the best.

Sincerely,

Michelle Obama
First Lady of the United States

Dear Ms. Reach:

Thank you for offering to help the First Lady invc the fight against childhood obesity. I want to assure you that your letter and contact information will be kept on file in our office should an opportunity to collaborate arise.

As you know, Mrs. Obama launched the Let's Move! initiative with the ambitious goal of solving the childhood obesity epidemic within a generation. Since then, we have seen changes at every level of our society-from classrooms, to boardrooms, to the halls of Congress-but we still have work to do.

Mrs. Obama believes that people like you are vital to our success on this issue, and she urges you to stay active and continue to lead efforts to improve the health of children in your community. To learn more about our initiatives and to connect with efforts in your community please visit www.LetsMove.gov.

Thank you again for writing. Mrs. Obama greatly values the important work being done all across the country, and she wishes you continued success with your efforts.

Sincerely,

Sam Kass
Executive Director of Let's Move!
